

Adult behavior

PRINCIPLES OF ADULT BEHAVIOR

1. Be patient. No matter what.
2. Don't badmouth:
Assign responsibility, never blame.
Say nothing behind another's back you'd be unwilling to say, in exactly the same tone and language, to his face.
3. Never assume the motives of others are, to them, less noble than yours are to you.
4. Expand your sense of the possible.
5. Don't trouble yourself with matters you truly cannot change.
6. Expect no more of anyone than you yourself can deliver.
7. Tolerate ambiguity.
8. Laugh at yourself frequently.
9. Concern yourself with what is right rather than whom is right.
10. Never forget that, no matter how certain, you might be wrong.
11. Give up blood sports.
12. Remember that your life belongs to others as well. Do not endanger it frivolously. And never endanger the life of another.
13. Never lie to anyone for any reason.
14. Learn the needs of those around you and respect them.
15. Avoid the pursuit of happiness. Seek to define your mission and pursue that.
16. Reduce your use of the first personal pronoun.
17. Praise at least as often as you disparage.
18. Never let your errors pass without admission.
19. Become less suspicious of joy.
20. Understand humility.
21. Forgive.
22. Foster dignity.
23. Live memorably.
24. Love yourself.
25. Endure.

Human Principals

1. Pareto Principle

↳ 80% of your outcomes come from 20% of your efforts.

↳ Don't focus on everything just focus on what makes the biggest impact.

2. Solomans Paradox

↳ Solving others problems will always be easier than solving your own.

↳ When you focus on helping yourself helping others will become easier.

3. Grice's Razor

↳ Too many people are listening just to hear the words.

↳ You should always listen to understand the intention behind the words.

4. Parkinson's Law

↳ Longer deadlines results in increased procrastination.

↳ Set shorter deadlines to boost productivity and waste less time.

5. Hofstadter's Law

↳ Everything in life takes longer than expected.

↳ Always be generous when making time bound plans.

6. 5 WHYs Framework

↳ Asking "why" multiple times helps you dig deep into problems.

↳ Use this framework to find the root cause of complex or difficult issues

7. Hanlon's Razor

↳ People don't always act with malice sometimes it's just ignorance.

↳ This rule can prevent overthinking and boost our emotional intelligence.

8. Sheeran's Law

↳ You're best ideas are likely not going to come straight away.

↳ Stay persistent and your strongest ideas will begin to show themselves.

9. Brandolini's Law

↳ Lies are always easier to spread than facts.

↳ Don't become overwhelmed by lies and rumours, stay focused.

10. Occam's Razor

↳ When things get complicated always take a step back.

↳ Sometimes the solution can be much simpler than imagined.
